

Training

Communicating effectively with ALL of your family

Group Lessons:

Puppy Education $109

Teaching your puppy basic manners and how to be a well-behaved member of the family.

Key topics include an introduction to simple cues such as sit, come and stay, socialization with people and other dogs, and problem prevention.

Beginner Education $109

Teaching puppies over four months and adult dogs that haven't had previous training how to also be a well-behaved member of the family.

Key topics include simple cues such as sit, come, down and stay, problem solving, house manners, and relationship-forming games.

Intermediate Education $109

Time to step up to behaviors involving more distance, duration and distractions by building on previously learned skills.

Key topics include a review of basic skills, additional cues such as heel and stand, and relationship-forming games.

Advanced Education $109

Now it's time to teach your dog skills that will help you and your pet communicate in more complex, real-world situations.

Key topics include sitting politely for petting, advanced loose leash walking and heeling, and specialized games to build reliability.

Private Lessons:

Custom classes tailored to your dog's individual needs are also offered.

Two-hour session $79

Four-hour session $209

Pets are Family

We know how important your pets are to you. After all, we're Pet Parents too. That is why we created our PetSmart Training Program to provide you with a way to communicate effectively with your pets in a positive, healthy environment and help them become well-behaved members of your family.

For More Information

Visit training.petsmart.com to find more information on pet education, including classes, videos and other products to help you foster a healthy, happy relationship with your dog.

